IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

This notice re-establishes that Wells Fargo has the right to conduct setoff for overdrawn deposit account balances, where applicable, and in accordance with your governing Deposit Account Agreement. When we exercise this right, we may reduce funds in any account you hold with us for purposes of paying the amount of the debt, either due or past due, that is owed to us as allowed by the laws governing your account. Our right of setoff won't apply if it would invalidate the tax-deferred status of any tax-deferred retirement account (e.g., a SEP or an IRA) you keep with us. To review a copy of your Deposit Account Agreement, including the provisions related to the right of setoff, please visit wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/.

Effective July 25, 2023, the paragraph in the "Standard Overdraft Coverage" subsection of the "Available Balance, Posting Transactions, and Overdraft" section of the Deposit Account Agreement that reads:

"The decision to pay a transaction into overdraft is made at our sole discretion. Generally, we base this decision on criteria such as your account history, deposits you make, and the transaction amount. We reserve the right to not pay a transaction into overdraft."

is deleted and replaced with the following:

When you don't have a sufficient available balance in your account (or in accounts linked for Overdraft Protection as described below), the decision to authorize or pay a transaction into overdraft is made at our sole discretion, and we reserve the right to decline or return a transaction that would result in an overdraft. We reserve this discretion regardless of whether we've previously honored or dishonored overdrafts.

We base our decision to authorize or pay a transaction into overdraft on criteria that includes, but is not limited to, your account history, deposits you make, and transaction characteristics.

When you make or schedule payments to a merchant (including payments made through another service provider, such as a digital wallet or other payment platform), it is important for you to understand your rights and responsibilities under any applicable agreement you may have with the merchant or service provider - including the methods in which they process transactions and what occurs if the Bank declines your transaction or returns it unpaid. The Bank does not assess fees for declined or returned transactions, but the merchant or service provider may assess fees or other penalties. Even if a merchant or service provider has approved or processed your transaction, you should not assume that the transaction will be authorized or paid by us when we become aware of the transaction and you do not have sufficient available funds in your bank account.

NEW YORK CITY CUSTOMERS ONLY -- Pursuant to New York City regulations, we request that you contact us at 1-800-TO WELLS (1-800-869-3557) to share your language preference.

Effective April 9, 2023, the Classic and Premium Check Image Fee was eliminated for non-analyzed business checking and savings accounts. Refer to definition of analyzed accounts in the Business Account Fee and Information Schedule available at wellsfargo.com/biz/fee-information. Thank you for banking with Wells Fargo. We appreciate your business.

Other Wells Fargo Benefits

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.
- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
