UNDERSTANDING YOUR ACCOUNT STATEMENT

Please report immediately any errors, discrepancies, irregularities or omissions.

This statement summarizes the activity of your account(s) during the statement period shown on the first page.

Not all statements contain the sections described below.

- CHECKS appear on checking statements in numerical order if checks were processed during the statement cycle. An asterisk (*) next to the check number indicates that a check(s) preceding it is not stated because it has not yet cleared the bank, was listed on a prior statement or is an ACH converted check. ACH converted checks appear in the DEBITS section.
- DEBITS include withdrawals, automatic deductions/payments, transfers out of the account, ACH converted checks, card transactions (such as ATM and Check Card transactions), certain fees (such as the Monthly Service Fee/Maintenance Fee (if any)).
- CREDITS include deposits, transfers to the account, special entries (such as corrections) and Interest Earned (if applicable).
- DAILY BALANCES include all activity up to and including that date.
- SUMMARY OF ACCOUNT BALANCES is reflected for combined statements. This reflects the balance at the end of the statement period.
