IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Elimination of Returned Item (Non-sufficient Funds/NSF) Fee and Revised Daily Fee Limit: Under the terms of your Deposit Account Agreement, when certain transactions are presented for payment in an amount that is more than your available balance, Wells Fargo may either (1) pay the item into overdraft at our discretion and assess an overdraft fee, or (2) return the item unpaid and assess a Returned item/Non-sufficient funds (NSF) fee.

Effective June 1, 2022, we will no longer charge an NSF fee on items we return unpaid due to non-sufficient funds. Overdraft fees will continue to apply to items we pay into overdraft at our discretion, under the terms of your Deposit Account Agreement (up to a maximum of four fees per business day for business accounts). These changes do not impact fees that may be assessed by third parties or other banks for returned items.

For current versions of your Deposit Account Agreement, Business Account Fee and Information Schedule, and applicable addenda, please visit wellsfargo.com/biz/fee-information/.

To learn more about tools that Wells Fargo offers to help you avoid overdraft fees, visit wellsfargo.com/biz/help/faqs/overdraft-services, speak with a local banker, or call the phone number on the top of your statement.

Elimination of Overdraft Protection transfer/advance fee(s): Under the terms of your Deposit Account Agreement, we offer an optional Overdraft Protection service for checking accounts that allows you to link up to two eligible accounts (one savings, one credit) to authorize or pay transactions when you don't have enough money in your checking account. Transfers and advances of funds from these linked accounts may result in an Overdraft Protection transfer or advance fee.

Effective June 1, 2022, we will no longer charge transfer or advance fees for transfers/advances from accounts linked for Overdraft Protection. For advances from a linked credit card or line of credit account, interest will continue to accrue from the date of each advance. Overdraft fees will continue to apply to items we pay into overdraft that are not covered by transfers/advances from your linked account(s).

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to consumer reporting agencies. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.

- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.

- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

1. Use the following worksheet to calculate your overall account balance.
