We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- . Tell us your name and account number, if any,
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

 to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or

INTEREST CHARGE CALCULATIONS FOR OVERDRAFT LINE OF CREDIT ACCOUNTS BASED ON AVERAGE DAILY BALANCE COMPUTATION METHOD

Calculating your Interest Charge

We calculate the interest charge on your Overdraft Line by applying the Daily Periodic Rate to the Average Daily Balance. Then, we multiply that result by the number of days in the billing cycle in which a balance is owed on your Overdraft Line. This gives us the total interest charge for that billing period.

Calculating your Average Daily Balance

To calculate the average daily balance, we take the beginning balance of your Overdraft Line each day (which does not include any unpaid interest charges or fees), add any new loan advances as of the date of those advances and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Then, we add all the daily balances for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of your account.

Credit Bureau Reporting

We may report information about your Overdraft Line to credit bureaus for each joint account holder of your checking account. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your Overdraft Line may be reflected in your credit report.

Thank you for banking with Citizens Bank.
